(L) God is the one who gives us understanding. If you want more, pray for it. "But what about 2 Timothy 2:15?" you ask, "Aren't we supposed to study?" Yes, we are, like now for instance. Praying and thinking about his question was when the Holy Spirit was teaching you something about "understanding", or at least that is my hope and prayer.

The Hebrew word biynah is almost always translated "understanding" but sometimes it is translated "wisdom", "knowledge" and even "meaning." The Greek word syniemi is usually translated "understanding." The Greek lexicon also gives it the meaning "bring together (as in making peace between opposing forces," or "join together in the mind." My definition of understanding is "correctly discerning the complex relationships between known facts and their implications."

There is another Greek term sometimes translated "understanding" which has the English sense of "empathetic" or "considerate." You can find this 1 Peter 3:7.
