

ROAD TO EMMAUS

The Harmony of the Old and New Testament PSALMS - PART B Psalms 39-94

"And I will walk at liberty, for I seek Your precepts." -- Psalm 119:45

Introduction to Psalms:

Psalms is quoted more than any other single book in the Old Testament – 90 times. In addition there are a large number of allusions to it as well. For logistical convenience this course is split into 3 parts of 10 lessons each. This is the second part.

Table of Contents

- Lesson 11 – Psalms in Hebrews
- Lesson 12 – Father's Discipline (Psalm 39)
- Lesson 13 – Two Songs Sung (Luke 1)
- Lesson 14 – Psalms in Synoptic Gospels
- Lesson 15 – Repentance (Psalm 51)
- Lesson 16 – Prayers II (Psalms 39-94)
- Lesson 17 – The Book of Life (Psalm 69)
- Lesson 18 – Promises II (Psalms 39-94)
- Lesson 19 – Water from Rock (Psalm 78)
- Lesson 20 – Psalms in Paul's Letters

Suggested methodology for each lesson:

1. Fellowship (Save most of this for the end of class)
2. Take prayer requests (Try to keep it from becoming a competition to see who has the most or the worst)
3. Pray (The idea is to leave our troubles with God so we can give Him our full attention.)
4. Read the lesson's scripture aloud from the Bible (or a few verses at a time as you answer the questions.)
5. Answer and briefly discuss the "fill in the blank" questions. (Let those who prefer to listen, listen. My answers on the next page are just one opinion; you may have a better answer if it is Scripture based.)
6. On the final "Think & Pray" question everyone should take a few minutes to pray over it and jot down their own thoughts before the discussion. This will give the Holy Spirit a time to speak .
7. Discuss your Think & Pray answers. (Never force anyone to share theirs. As with the other questions, my answer is just one more opinion; you may have a better answer.)
8. Close in prayer (It is good to call on others to pray, but try to get their permission first.)
9. Fellowship (Leave this as open ended as possible for the time and place you meet.)

Depending on the number of people, each lesson is expected to take about one hour. Steps 4 thru 7 are about half of that. If you take longer, let each lesson take more than one meeting. If you take less time, extra questions are usually provided for discussion called "For Further Thought"

----- PRICE INFORMATION -----

This material is provided at no cost to those in jail or prison or those ministering to them. You have permission to print and copy these course materials as much as you like as long as you keep this page intact with the contents. Although we are a ministry, we are not a non-profit organization. If you are not in jail or prison or at least using this with someone who is incarcerated, we expect to be paid, to help finance our ministry to those who are behind bars. We suggest two different ways of determining the price:

(1) Take up an offering from the students at the end of the course, and send it to us.

OR

(2) Pray about it and pay us what God tells you to send.

Of course, we have designed the website so that there is nothing to stop you from just downloading and printing the course. If you think it is worth nothing, why are you using it? If you think God would have you take or teach this course and you have no money to pay for it, I urge you to reconsider. If God does not want you to use this course He might be trying to let you know that by withholding funds. Or He might have some other purpose, like teaching you to humbly ask somebody else to fund it. Or maybe something else, but if we worship the same God, He would not have you just take it without regard to our wishes. We hope to make enough money to continue producing and providing these lessons. If God does not bless this ministry with financial encouragement, we will take that as pretty strong evidence He does not want us to make any more of these lessons available.

We prefer that you mail us a check, but you may also pay by credit card via PayPal.

Lesson 11 - Hebrews

Hebrews quotes or alludes to Psalms over 40 times. We will look at only a few of these.

Please read these scriptures and answer the associated questions:

[11A] Heb 1:10-12 | Ps 102:24-28 Who made the heaven and the earth? _____

Lesson 11 - Hebrews

- [11A] Heb 1:10-12 | Ps 102:24-28 Who made the heaven and the earth? The Lord
- [11B] Heb 2:6-8 | Ps 8:4-6 Who has been made ruler of all? The Son of man
- [11C] Heb 3:7-15 | Ps 95:7-12 Who hardened their hearts towards God? Israelites in the wilderness
- [11D] Heb 4:1-3 | Ps 95:11 Why did the good news fail to let them into His rest? Lack of faith
- [11E] Heb 5:5 | Ps 2:7 Christ was called what by God? My Son
- [11F] Heb 6:17-19 | Ps 91:2 Who is trustworthy as our refuge? The Lord
- [11G] Heb 7:22 | Ps 119:122 Who guarantees a better covenant? Jesus
- [11H] Heb 8:1 | Ps 110:1 Where is Jesus now? At the right hand of God the Father (Romans 8:34)
- [11I] Heb 9:11-12 | Ps 9:11-12 Who requires blood? God
- [11J] Heb 10:5-9 | Ps 40:6-8 What does God prefer over sacrifices and offerings? Obedience
- [11K] Heb 11:3 | Ps 33:6-9 Where did the material used for creation come from?

It did not exist previously

- [11L] Heb 12:23 | Ps 50:6 Who is the judge of all? God
- [11M] Heb 13:8 | Ps 102:24-27 Who does not change? God

[11N] I'm afraid of God. Because Hebrews 11:7-11 says, "It is for discipline that you endure; God deals with you as with sons; for what son is there whom his father does not discipline? But if you are without discipline, of which all have become partakers, then you are illegitimate children and not sons. Furthermore, we had earthly fathers to discipline us, and we respected them; shall we not much rather be subject to the Father of spirits, and live? For they disciplined us for a short time as seemed best to them, but He disciplines us for our good, so that we may share His holiness. All discipline for the moment seems not to be joyful, but sorrowful; yet to those who have been trained by it, afterwards it yields the peaceful fruit of righteousness," and I'm not righteous yet.

For further thought:

See what you can learn by studying some other places Hebrews uses the Psalms.

Lesson 12 – Father's Discipline (Psalm 39)

[12A] Ps 39:1 | James 3:1-18 What do we need to guard? What we say and do

[12B] Ps 39:2-3 | Luke 24:32 What burned within? The heart

[12C] Ps 39:4 | Luke 12:20 How much longer will you live? Unknown

[12D] Ps 39:5 | 1 Pet 1:24 How long is a man's life in comparison to God's. Nothing

[12E] Ps 39:6 | James 1:10-11 How much longer do the rich live than the poor? No real difference

[12F] Ps 39:7-11 | Heb 12:4-11 What does a loving Father do? Disciplines His children

[12G] Ps 39:12-13 | 1 Pet 2:11 Are we supposed to feel at home here, relax, and indulge ourselves? No

[12H] What does what Ps 39:13 mean when it says, "Turn Your gaze away from me"? I believe it means that the Psalmist is afraid God's discipline is going to overwhelm him to the point of death. Is that even possible? I believe it is. One more reason to guard our behavior.

[13L] The structure of these two songs is complex but you should still be able to find the parallelism in them as in all Hebrew style poetry. Here is Mary's song analyzed. Try to do the same thing with Zacharias' song Luke 1:68-79 on a separate sheet of paper. My analysis is on the back.

Mary's Song about Jesus

| Luke 1:46 And Mary said: "My soul exalts the Lord,                               | I am very happy                                 |
| 47 And my spirit has rejoiced in God my Savior.                                  | I am very happy                                 |
| 48 "For He has had regard for the humble state of His bonds slave;               | God has seen my humble condition and blessed me |
| For behold, from this time on all generations will count me blessed.             | His reputation is forever                       |
| 49 "For the Mighty One has done great things for me;                             | God has seen my humble condition and blessed me |
| And holy is His name.  | His reputation is above all                     |
| 50 "And His mercy is upon generation after generation Toward those who fear Him. | He is kind to the humble forever                |
| 51 "He has done mighty deeds with His arm;                                       | He humbles the proud                            |
| He has scattered those who were proud in the thoughts of their heart.            |   |
| 52 "He has brought down rulers from their thrones,                               | He humbles the proud                            |
| And has exalted those who were humble.   | He is kind to the humble                        |

| 54 "He has given help to Israel His servant,                                     | He is kind to the humble forever                |

----- ANSWERS -----

Lesson 16 – Prayer II (Psalm 57; Rom 8:25; 2 Cor 12:10; Psalms 39-94)

[16A] Who is praying?

David (The line at the front to the choir director is in the original text.)

[16B] Who besides God is listening?

His readers, obviously, but it only addressed to God

[16C-D] What is specifically being requested?

He asks, "Be gracious to me," twice in vs. 1. Clearly from the description of his difficulties later in the Psalm he is hoping for rescue and refuge from distress and persecution.

[16E] How does the person praying try to convince God to answer?

There is an acceptance implied in the way he just describes his difficulties and states that whatever happens he will praise and worship God. David understood that sometimes God's will is worked through our difficulties as much as in our deliverance from them.

[16F] What results, if any, are reported to the prayer?

None are reported here but the expectation of future praise suggests that David fully expected a favorable response. We know from 1 Samuel 24 that David did escape from Saul.

[16G] How do Romans 8:35 and 2 Corinthians 12:10 help us understand Psalm 57?

How can we apply this to our own prayer life?

Romans 8 helps us understand the sovereignty of God in all things. (Ps 57:9-11) 2nd Corinthians 12 shows us how our steadfast faith is expected regardless of our circumstances. (Ps 57:7) It seems to me that David's example teaches two things. (A) The priority praise and worship should take in our prayers, and (B) how important it is that we accept the answer "No" as readily as we do the answer "Yes."

For further thought:

(16i) Look at these passages and determine if they are an example of prayer or a teaching about prayer. Use questions like the ones in this lesson to analyze these passages. Who was praying for what and how did they go about it? What can be learned about prayer from each passage?

Psalm 39 -- Prayer of a stranger in a strange land

Psalm 41 -- Prayer for rescue from distress

Psalm 42 -- Prayer for hope

Psalm 43 -- Prayer for deliverance

Psalm 44 -- Prayer for assistance

Psalm 46 -- Prayer for refuge

Psalm 55 -- Prayer for protection from enemies (or The Enemy)

Psalm 71 -- Prayer of Trust

Psalm 73 -- Prayer for God Himself

Psalm 90 -- Prayer of a Pilgrim

----- ANSWERS -----

Lesson 18 – Promises II (Psalm 73:23-24; Matthew 28:19-20; Psalms 39-94)

Psalm 73:23-24

[18A1] Who is speaking to whom?

Asaph is praying (Psalm preamble)

[18B1] What is promised to whom?

Asaph is saying that the Lord is with him continually, guides him, and will ultimately take him home to heaven.

[18C1] What are the conditions of the promise being fulfilled, if any?

Being pure in heart is the condition, (vs. 1) which is not the same thing as being sinless, (vs. 22) but has more to do with loyalty (vs. 23)

Matthew 28:19-20

[18A2] Who is speaking to whom?

Jesus is speaking to His disciples.
(vs. 16-18)

[18B2] What is promised to whom?

Jesus promised to be with them always.

[18C2] What are the conditions of the promise being fulfilled, if any?

He commanded them to go everywhere, baptize, and teach. We assume these are conditions for the promise, but it is not explicitly stated.

[18D] Do these promises apply to us? Why or why not?

I believe that God is with me continually. I have a heart of purity He gave me through the blood of Jesus Christ.
